Rhode Island Vote Hits Blow At New Dealers

Amazing Reversal Of Vote

Election Tuesday

Candidate Supporting "New Deal" Suffers Crushing
Defeat In Vote

(BULLETIN)

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 7.—Democratic Rhode Island swapped horses in mid-stream today, and in a crushing defeat for the New Deal administration a proponent, sent a Republican to Congress by a plurality of more than 11,000 votes.

The first district, which went Democratic by 21,000 votes a year ago, swept Charles P. Risk, 38-year-old Republican into office, over Antonio Prince, Democrat, who based his campaign on the slogan: "Go forward with Roosevelt."

Has 11,000 Lead
Virtually complete returns today gave Risk 45,189 as against 34,012 for Prince. The independent candidate, Isaac Moses, who was supported by the Good Government Association, polled 598 votes.

Only Woonsocket gave the Democratic candidate a plurality. All the other cities of the industrial district gave the G. O. P. candidate, a staunch bonus payment advocate, a majority.

In state-wide balloting, Governor Theodore Francis Green, also suffered a stinging defeat when his plans for bond issues for reforestation, park system and public buildings, were turned down. One, calling for a loan of $3,000,000 for unemployment relief, was passed.

Newport Goes G. O. P.
The city of Newport also went Republican, electing Henry S. Wheeler by a plurality of 1,300 votes over Jeremiah Mahoney, Democrat.

Risk, who started his career as a "back boy" in a Pawtucket thread mill, was elected to the seat made vacant by the late Senator Charles D. Ives.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Local streams have been rising and falling like the tides during the past two weeks, due to the recurring rains. They were up again this morning as a result of the heavy rain Tuesday afternoon and evening.

New Castle auto drivers going to Youngstown should be wary. Traffic laws are being rigidly enforced at the present time, and a considerable number of drivers have been arrested on speeding charges.

Tomorrow, Thursday, is the first registration day for the fall election in New Castle. Voters will be permitted to register this year, and an exceptionally large enrollment is indicated.

With the enormous number of "wiener" roasts being held in this community it is amazing to Pa New the large number of persons unable to properly spell the word "wiener."

If you are one who doubts the need of a larger free public library for New Castle, walk into the present library building at North Jefferson and North street and see for yourself how crowded things are.

Battle Stubbhorn Blaze In Newest U. S. Cruiser

(International News Service)
QUINCY, Mass., Aug. 7.—After a five hour battle, a stubborn blaze in the hold of the U. S. S. Quincy, newest $10,000,000 cruiser under construction for the United States Navy, was brought under control today.

Shipyard fire fighters were unable to cope with the blaze and all available city apparatus was rushed to the Fore River shipyards of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, where the modern 10,000 ton cruiser was launched on June 19.

Damage, expected to be heavy, was undetermined as was the cause of the fire, pending an official inquiry.

The fire apparently started in an engine room on the third deck below the main deck. The heavy black smoke hampered firemen, forcing all to don gas masks.

The Quincy, whose sister ship Vincennes also is being built at the Fore River yards, was designed to mount eight inch guns, airplane hangar and airplane catapults. She is 578 feet in length.

Thursday First Day To Register

Registration Boards To Start Work At 8 A. M.
Hours Are Announced

OFFICIALS EXPECT
RUSH EARLY IN DAY

Thursday, August 8, which is tomorrow, is the first day for voters of New Castle to register under the new permanent registration law. Registry booths, which are located in the same places as the polling booths on election day will be open from 8 a. m. to 12 noon, from 1 p. m. to 6 p. m., and from 7 p. m. to 10 p. m.

This is the first registration day the other two being August 17 and August 28. Because of the detail of the new forms for permanent registration it will probably require more time to get the voter registered and for this reason it is important that voters take advantage of the registration days as early as possible.

The election on September 17 and on November 5 will be huge affairs, many important offices being up for election.

Adverse Votes For Democrats In Rhode Island
Fail To Ruffle
President

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—If the Rhode Island election returns disturbed President Roosevelt in any way, he failed to disclose it at today's press conference.

Asked to comment on the Rhode Island upset which returned a Republican congressman in a Democratic district, Mr. Roosevelt smiled and said he would have to confess he had not even known a special election was being held in the little state until he read of it in yesterday's papers.

Couple Face Death In Yosemite Valley

Two Hikers, Man And Woman,
Hang To Small Ledge 500
Feet High

(International News Service)
YOSEMITE, Cal., Aug. 7.—While rangers cautiously hurried to their rescue, two hikers, a man and a woman, clung to a tiny ledge today on the face of Half Dome, a towering 2500 foot monolith overlooking Yosemite Valley.

Although rangers were unable to understand the names of the couple as they shouted, friends believed the hikers are Elizabeth Lorimer, 23, of Chicopee, Mass., and Robert Pate, 35, New Bedford, Cal.

The hikers were trapped 500 feet from the floor of the valley. They apparently had tried to return from the top down the east side of the precipitous mountain of granite where illusory trails lead only part way to the floor of the valley.

Last night the couple lighted shrubbery, the blaze of the fire summing rangers to whom they shouted, "We don't believe we can hold on until morning."

Throughout the night a group of ten rangers made all possible haste over ten miles of pitch dark, tortuous trails to reach the top of the monolith—the only vantage point from which ropes can be lowered to reach the trapped hikers.

May Hire Help For Registrars

Commissioners Considering
Matter Owing To Time
Required To Register

SOME CONGESTION
APPEARS LIKELY

County commissioners are considering putting two additional registrars at each registration district in the city. Tests made today show that it will take from six to eight minutes to register each applicant. Seven minutes would probably be a fair average, and providing no time is lost this would mean that only about nine applicants can be registered in an hour. At this rate there is certain to be a jam at the polling places.

The oath which is to be administered is rather long. If it is read to the applicant it will take from 45 seconds to one minute to read it. It has been suggested that the blanks be handed to the registrars as they enter the booth and that they be permitted to read the oath before answering the questions. If this were done it would save time. It would also save time if several persons can be sworn in at once.

If additional registrars are put on, they could not administer the oath, as it would have to be done by the regular registrar. The registrars are paid $10 per day. Assistants, if put on, could be had at from $4 to $5 per day. The only alternative seems to be to make more registration days, if the regular registrars are to do the work. The commissioners would have this right under the law.

As the rent for rooms would have to be paid for additional days, and the registrars would each draw $10, it is believed that money would be saved the county by putting on additional help on the regular registration days. Just what will be done in the matter had not been determined at the time of going to press.

Pittsburgh Man Burned To Death

Police Investigate Case, Woman Is Sought For Questioning

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 7.—Willard J. Hollinger, 40, a utility company employee, was mysteriously burned to death today in a fire which routed four families from the fashionable apartment where he resided.

Police said they were seeking a woman frequently visiting the apartment and who, they were told by neighbors, was at the apartment last night.

Hollinger's unclad body, partly burned, was found in a corner bedroom on the first floor, near a closed window, only eight feet from the ground. A smoking pipe in the basement below the floor where he was found dead was the only clue. Police were investigating a theory he may have fallen asleep while smoking.

Firemen broke into the apartment with axes and carried the victim to the lawn where rescue squads worked over his body with an inhalator.

Did Not Offer Greek Throne To Duke Of Kent

(International News Service)
BELGRADE, Aug. 7.—Reports published abroad that the English Duke of Kent had been offered the Greek throne during his visit in Yugoslavia were denied here today. The report said Premier Panayotis Tsaldaris of Greece had offered the throne to the young duke during a conference at the castle of Prince Paul, Yugoslavian Regent, near Bled.

It was stated officially that Premier Tsaldaris visited Prince Paul at the castle, but missed the duke and his Greek bride, Marina, who were motoring. It was understood the duke and duchess purposely avoided Tsaldaris.

Floods Delay B. & O. Trains

Akron And Homer, O.,
Holding Up Traffic

Floods, which washed out the tracks of the B. & O. railroad between Akron and Homer, O., a point west of Akron, delayed passenger and freight trains this morning, Terminal Trainmaster J. L. Thoman reported this morning.

In some instances, some of the through passenger trains were delayed three and a half hours, while freight trains were held up even longer. Whole sections of track were washed out west of Akron, it was reported.

The damage is expected to be repaired so that traffic will be back to normal by 6 o'clock this evening, Mr. Thoman stated.

Rhode Island Result Worries New Dealers

International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The New Dealers were considerably jarred and not a little perturbed today over the first political setback they have experienced since Roosevelt policies became an acute issue.

The election of Charles F. Risk, Republican, in a congressional district in Rhode Island hitherto considered safely Democratic, was rather startling. More startling was the margin of the Republican victory—11,000-odd votes. Less than a year ago the same district went Democratic by 21,000 votes. In a total vote of less than 100,000, that represents a gigantic turnover. And more disturbing to the Democrats was the fact that the principal, almost the sole issue, was the New Deal. Last November the same voters gave it enthusiastic approval. Now they are against it.

Inside "Tide Has Turned"
For the first time since 1932, Republican faces were wreathed in smiles around the capital today. Heretofore, they haven't had much to smile about, although they haven't been insisting for some time that "the tide has turned." Now they feel they have definite, concrete proof that it has. Just as the Democratic capture of a traditional Michigan district in a special election in 1931 disclosed the weakness of the Hoover regime, so today the Republicans claimed the result in "little Rhode" marks the turning point in Mr. Roosevelt's political fortunes.

While conceding that one swallow does not make a summer, the Republicans nevertheless are enormously encouraged, and the result is to make them look forward to next year with a hope that is real rather than assumed.

Democrats Worry
As for the Democrats, they endeavored to laugh off the Rhode Island result. (Continued On Page Two)

MEET A SHOCKING BATHING BEAUTY

When Thelma Robertson, recently adjudged most beautiful bathing beauty in Wichita, Kas., decided to try her hand at shocking Kansas wheat, U. B. Farmer Simon was convinced more wheat would be grown if such attractive shockers could be obtained.

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Aug. 7.—Gov. George H. Earle today called a meeting of his civilian advisory committee, named to lay the groundwork for constitutional revision for August 13 in the House of Representatives chamber.

The meeting will be the first of the committee of 75 which the executive named last spring while the administration's constitutional revision bill was moving through the Senate. It will be held just one month to the day before the state wide referendum on whether a constitutional convention shall be called next December to redraft the state's 60-year-old basic law.

In his letter to each member Governor Earle stressed the importance of attending, saying:

"May I urge upon you the importance of attending."

ROME, Aug. 7.—Indications that France—host next week to an Italo-Abyssinian "peace" conference—is actually aiding Italy by relieving her of some border defense responsibilities were seen again today with the expected shift of 30,000 Italian troops to make it possible for 42,000 more to go to Africa.

Two divisions, the Assietta and Cosseria, from the provinces of Asti and Cuneo, from the French frontier, have been ordered to Africa, and have been ordered to Africa, and have been ordered to Africa.

Four Thousand From Ship Crews Parade In Havre

THREATEN TO HALT
SAILING OF SHIP

(International News Service)
PARIS, Aug. 7.—Four thousand crew members marched off the giant Normandie, Champlain, Columbia and Lafayette at Havre today, parading through the streets shouting and waving red flags as the scene of agitation against government pay cuts shifted from riotous Brest.

The liner Champlain, with many Americans booked, failed to sail on schedule. Previously crew members had announced it would not be allowed to depart for New York unless the 10 per cent "save the franc" reductions were promptly restored.

Brest Is Calm
With one dead, 150 in hospitals and many other rioters in jail, Brest was calm today, but 1,000 guards stayed on duty, and the city showed damaged shops and littered streets as the result of yesterday's scenes.

Work at the Brest arsenal, where thousands of sailors were being refused to work under guards, was resumed, but authorities took no risk of more trouble. Troops, marines, mobile guards and gendarmes were all reinforced, patrolling streets and occupying strategic positions.

The Brest and Havre affairs were outstanding manifestations of growing unrest throughout the country over the salary cuts applied to all government workers—the ships of the French line are government-subsidized—without it, it is charged, corresponding reduction of food prices.

Premier Pierre Laval has summoned the prefects of France's 40 departments to an emergency conference Friday.

Nine were injured in a clash at Toulon yesterday, and there were minor outbreaks in Paris and other centers.

Massillon Is Apparently Center Of Worst Af-

(BULLETIN)

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 7.—Northern and Eastern Ohio today were swept by the worst flood since the disastrous deluge of 1913, with property loss running into millions of dollars.

Thus far the flood toll included one man dead at Wellington, struck by lightning, and two children reported missing at Berlin.

Rivers and their tributaries shot out of their banks in a score of northeastern counties as the rainfall reached as high as 8.7 inches during the last 12 hours.

Literally thousands of families were driven from their homes, seeking refuge wherever they could, when whole towns were covered with water from the racing, rampant streams.

Worst At Massillon
At Massillon, south of here, grave fear was felt for the safety of the city.

Striking Women Riot At Dallas

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 7.—Ten women had their clothing ripped from them today as striking women garment workers or sympathizers staged surprise attacks at two garment manufacturing companies here.

Women were violently attacked. Their clothes were ripped to shreds and the victims were tossed through the front doors of the two plants.

Police answered riot calls and soon restored order. Several women were painfully cut and scratched by strikers or sympathizers.

ITALIAN PRESS STIRS BRITAIN

Anti-British Attacks Appear

Great Britain Makes "Strong Representations" Over Attitude Shown

MUSSOLINI'S OWN JOURNALS OFFEND

By HARRY K. REYNOLDS
International News Service Staff Correspondent
LONDON, Aug. 7.—Revealing friction between Great Britain and Italy over the Italo-Abyssinian crisis has reached a serious stage, the foreign office disclosed today that Britain had made "strong representations" to Italy against anti-British attacks appearing in the Italian press.

The representations were made July 26 through Dino Grandi, Italy's ambassador to London, citing "violent" attacks which the Italian press, including semi-official publications, has made against Britain for her role in the Italo-Abyssinian quarrel.

The foreign office pointed out that in contrast to this, the British press had held itself to restrained comments on Italy's policy.

For some time now, ever since Britain assumed a leading role in trying to swerve Premier Mussolini from his war-like course and in trying to uphold League of Nations peace machinery in the threatened war, the Italian press has carried on at fever heat a bitter campaign against British "interference" in Italy's affairs.

Premier Mussolini's own paper, the Popolo d'Italia of Milan, and the semi-official Giornale d'Italia of Rome have been among the most outspoken in this respect.

land result as due to a combination of circumstances, but their laugh had a hollow echo. A 32,000 vote turnover in a district of less than 100,000 votes, and in the short space of nine months, cannot easily be laughed off. Even smiling Jim Farley, now vacationing in Honolulu, would have difficulty getting a smile out of figures so convincing.

The Democrats were inclined to put it down to a number of things—veterans' resentment against Mr. Roosevelt for having vetoed the bonus bill; textile interests' resentment against the cotton processing taxes, which was passed along to the mill workers; higher taxes, etc. Some textile mills in Rhode Island have closed in recent months, throwing men and women out of work. The mill owners blamed it on the processing taxes of the AAA, which is not popular in the East anyway, and especially unpopular in New England, which doesn't derive any benefits from the corn-hog-wheat checks that flow westward from Washington in a gigantic stream.

The Republican victory in Rhode Island, they conceded, is somewhat disturbing, but not symptomatic of the entire country. They maintained that the New Deal is just as popular in the Middle and Far West as it has ever been.

The net result of "little Rhody's" rebellion against the New Deal will be to spur the Republican organization to renewed efforts and with new hopes, and for the Democratic organization into a realization that 1936 may not be, as they confidently predicted, merely a pushover for them.

FRANCE'S ACTION GIVES ITALY AID

two new divisions have been called up to replace their man-power.

Fears Central Europe

But the two new units will not be sent to the French border, but, it is understood, to Tyrol, where Italy feels there is far more danger of trouble—originating from central Europe—than from France.

Significance of these developments was emphasized when Field Marshal Henri Petain of France, telegraphed to Field Marshal Pietro Badoglio, Italian chief of staff, who was awarded the grand cross of the French Legion of Honor.

"All the French army joins in rendering homage to the valorous chief of staff of the armed forces of Italy."

This hint of solidarity between the armies of the two nations recalled the reports of deep significance attached to the visit in June of the French chief of staff to the Italian chief of staff.

In addition to yesterday's mobilizations, it was reliably understood that Premier Benito Mussolini has issued orders for the construction of 12 new naval destroyers totaling around 15,000 tons.

In the California and Bentleyville areas high water caused considerable property damage. District streams were swollen by the extensive rainfall.

In Ohio, the storm centered at East Liverpool, Coshocton and Cambridge. Damage exceeding $50,000 was caused by the storms in West Virginia.

Navy To Build New Warships

United States Navy Will Be Second To None After Building Program Starts

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The administration moved forward today with plans to give the United States a navy second to none.

Representing a major step in the program designed to give this country a full treaty-strength navy by 1942, the navy department moved to open bids at noon on thirteen new warships.

These vessels represent the warships that are to be built in private yards as part of the 1935-36 naval building program. Eleven other vessels will be constructed in navy yards and estimates on these ships now are being submitted to the navy department.

Open Bids Today

The privately built warships on which bids will be opened today consist of the following:

- 1 light cruiser
- 1 aircraft carrier
- 3 torpedo-boat destroyers of 1850 tons each
- 5 torpedo-boat destroyers of 1500 tons each
- 3 submarines

The warships to be built in government yards consists of 1 light cruiser, 7 torpedo boat destroyers of the smaller class, and 3 submarines.

Patients were removed from Smith hospital at Millersburg, Holmes county seat, in rowboats.

Highways Closed

South of here all highways linking Ohio and Pennsylvania were closed to automobile traffic except the route via Wooster, O. In places as much as eight feet of water hid all traces of the concrete ribbons.

Highway department maintenance men worked frantically to open roads where possible, but with the waters rising in most localities they worked against insuperable odds.

Lightning struck barns near Millersburg, but firemen were helpless to answer alarms because of impassability of flooded roads.

Many streams went on a rampage after torrential rains accompanied by heavy wind Monday.

Railroad tracks were washed out in several Minnesota counties, telephone and telegraph communication was interrupted.

Court Room Packed

Judge Cornelius Harrington's criminal court room was packed with trial fans, most of them housewives, who were drawn by the promise of the confessions. Among them were a dozen girls in flowered dresses who occupied the jury box, vacant because the defendants waived a jury.

Mrs. Evelyn Smith Jung's enigmatic smile never wavered as she heard repeated her admission that she drugged and strangled Lang, and then cut his legs from his body with a knife and hack-saw.

The ex-burlesque dancer, wife of a Chinese who is sought for aiding her in disposing of the body, chirped cheerfully during an interlude:

Mrs. Dunkel gave her former crony a hard look and edged as far away as their seats would allow.

Prosecutor Charles Dougherty expected to rest his case with the testimony of minor witnesses after the reading of the statements.

election and in addition there will be at least two controversial questions to settle, the constitutional revision and the Sunday motion picture question.

Voters who want to be sure of their right to vote will be wise to get registered on Thursday. There are two other days but it may be impossible for the voter to get out on those days.

are becoming. More and more necessary shelving is pushing other things out. The reading room mantle is now disappearing and shelves are going up along one wall in the private office of the librarian, Miss Alice M. Sterling. And on top of everything, the institution is growing more popular every day.

While the wet weather is aiding the pasture fields on local farms it is hindering the harvesting and threshing of grain in a marked degree. Unless the rains let up for a time, there will be heavy loss on some farms, Pa. News is told.

During the past few days reports have been received by city police that several persons have been attacked by dogs. Many dogs are roaming at large.

It looked far from home, which it was. That was the sedan, bearing license tags of the territory of Hawaii, parked a short ways from the Castleton door last night. The car evidently was owned by travelers who reside in that Pacific land.

Fact that the Pymatuning dam is in operation at the present time probably has saved New Castle and the Shenango valley from a flood condition during the past week, those familiar with conditions assert.

Although the water in the Mahoning river is high due to the heavy rains west of here, there is no danger of a flood, employees of the sewage disposal plant stated. It was necessary to shut the plant down last evening, however, and divert the sewage into the river, as the water backed up into the tanks.

Schultz Lawyers Threaten State

Will Rip State Tax Department Setup From Top To Bottom

(International News Service)

ALBANY, Aug. 7.—Dutch Schultz, through one of his financial advisers, today threatened to "rip the state tax department open from top to bottom" at tomorrow's supreme court hearing in New York on the failure of the former Bronx beer baron to pay state income taxes.

The threat was made by Milton Bernard of New York, one of Schultz's financial advisers, in a telephone conversation with John R. Ross, assistant counsel to the state tax commission.

After trying vainly to induce Ross to use his influence with Mark Graves, president of the state tax commission, to postpone tomorrow's court hearing and agree to "cut" the $37,000 which Schultz owes the state, Bernard shouted over the telephone, according to Ross:

"All right, go ahead with tomorrow's hearing and we will rip the tax department open from top to bottom."

vacant by the resignation of Francis B. Condon, Democrat, who was elevated to the state supreme court bench.

Ironically, it was in Condon's office in Washington that the victorious congressman first got his smattering of politics. Later, when he rose to a district court judgeship, he and Condon were "great pals."

"I am in no mood to crow over my victory," said Risk. "It is not personal. It is a party victory. I feel that the lack of coordination between the chief executive and numerous sub-divisions of the government, together with his (the president's) seeming lack of interest in the welfare of war veterans contributed to my election."

Risk in his campaign attacked the processing tax on cotton, which has resulted in hardships for many mills in the textile center of Blackstone valley.

SMOKING FURNACE CAUSE OF ALARM

Firemen were called to the Wright building, 346 East Washington street, at 4:25 Tuesday afternoon by an alarm from Box 31, occupants of the building becoming alarmed when a fire was built in the furnace causing it to smoke.

Firemen had difficulty in reaching the scene, it was reported, due to the heavy traffic at that hour. Motorists refusing to yield the right of way.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks nasty.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 50¢ were the two dominant factors in her life and she exemplified the teachings of the church in her daily life. A woman of rugged individuality, she bound to her with hands of steel those people fortunate enough to be her friends.

With her husband she was one of the founders of the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, and while she was physically able she gave freely of her time and energies to the upbuilding of the church. When the Grace church was merged with Epworth M. E. she affiliated with the parent church, but for several years had been unable to attend any services.

Blanks Sent Out For Registration

Clerk Thomas Edmunds Has Everything Ready For Registrars Tomorrow

Clerk Thomas Edmunds of the registration board and assistants were busy this forenoon assorting registration blanks and doing them up in boxes to be delivered to registrars in the different districts for tomorrow's registration. The registration blanks are all numbered, there being three of each number. They came in different packages, and had to be assembled by threes, all alike. This has made considerable work.

Each box, with the number of blanks necessary for a district are tied with heavy twine and the district marked on the face. Mr. Edmunds is delivering them to the different precincts this afternoon so that the registrars will have them early tomorrow morning when registration begins.

Edmunds is going to Mercer tonight to give instructions to the Mercer board. Edmunds made a thorough study of the act as soon as he could get a copy and before he was appointed as chief clerk. Another example of the value of preparedness.

Miss Margaret Owrey, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Richard Owrey of 609 Bell avenue, is in the American Mission hospital at Assuit, Egypt, where she is being treated for injuries to her right side, sustained in a fall when boarding a boat.

Miss Owrey, with a group of missionaries, was being taken as guests on a boat ride and in missing her footing she stepped rather suddenly into a deep pit, which threw her to the floor. While Miss Owrey's injuries are not of a serious nature, they are quite painful. The letter was dated July 21, and it is expected she is well on her way to complete recovery by this time.

BALDWIN PICNIC AT HIGHLAND CHURCH

When the rain came down Tuesday afternoon, Baldwin class members decided to have their annual picnic in Highland church, instead of in the grove at Cascade park.

Whether the bad weather really drew the crowd for the committee had put forth much effort in getting everybody out is a question, but at any rate, the affair was a big success for there were over a hundred present, many of the folks bringing their families.

The long tables were attractive with garden flowers which were but a part of the decorations for colorful steaming casseroles of tasty food were more than pleasing to the hungry group which sat down to dinner at 6:45. The committee serving consisted of Mrs. Harry Matlocks, Mrs. Lee Pyle and Mrs. E. Carpenter.

The latter hours were given over to games under the direction of Mrs. Harold R. McCulloch and Ralph Davies, the men as well as the women and children enjoying themselves immensely.

DOCTOR HELPS WOMAN LOSE SURPLUS FAT

Mrs. Long didn't listen to gossipers—she had a mind of her own

Mrs. H. H. Long of Clarinda, Iowa, writes: "Kruschen was recommended by my doctor in connection with gall stone treatment, high blood pressure and acid kidneys. This is my 3rd jar. I've lost 18 lbs. Doctor says I'm doing fine."

Beware of gossipers who keep you from obtaining a shapely figure by saying there's no safe way to reduce. Kruschen Salts is SAFE—it's actually a health treatment—you'll not only lose fat but you'll feel much better physically. Just take a half teaspoonful in a cup of hot water every morning—tastes fine with juice of half lemon added. A jar lasts 4 weeks and costs but a few cents. Eckerd's Drug Store sells lots of it.

When the excitement had subsided, an enjoyable program of round and square dancing was in vogue, and other pastimes also filled in the hours.

During the evening, refreshing menus were served, and an added attraction was the original dance skit put on by Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Holsinger. The entire affair proved a marked success.

INTOLERANCE AND DICTATORSHIP

THERE has naturally been considerable indignation in the United States over developments reported from Germany having to do with racial and religious differences. The situation brings to mind the fact that in a dictatorship, whether it be communist or otherwise, freedom of the press and religious liberty soon go by the boards.

Nearly everyone is young enough to remember what happened in Russia when the red dictators got control. Not only were certain religious organizations abolished, but religion itself has practically been wiped out. There is no such thing as freedom of the press or even freedom of thought. Every man fears his neighbor as a spy who may send him to Siberia for expressing an opinion which is not in line with the policies of the Moscow government.

In Italy, when Mussolini created a fascist state, the same thing happened. Freedom of the press was abolished and freedom of thought rendered perilous. Religious freedom was endangered too.

There has been an outcry in Mexico, generally a country governed by dictators, about religious persecution, and now from Germany comes the news of the curtailment of religious freedom by the government. Freedom of the press has long since gone.

The lessons for America are not hard to find. We may become indignant, but we cannot, of course, interfere with the internal affairs of another country. That is the business of the people of that country, although we can always hope that they proceed in an atmosphere of freedom and tolerance.

But the affairs of the United States are the business of our people. It is no accident that the rise of dictatorship is always accompanied by the abolition of the press and by the curtailment of racial and religious freedom. That always happens and it will always happen so long as the people set up dictators to do their thinking and their leading.

There has been a tendency in the United States toward a centralizing of power in Washington. This can only mean greater bureaucracy, and less liberty. No matter how good and kind we may think our present rulers to be, the very moment our government evolves from constitutional control into a dictatorship we may expect at least the destruction of freedom of the press and the ending of religious freedom.

Those of us who believe in a free and untrammelled press, and those who believe that we should be permitted to worship God according to the dictates of our own consciences, regardless of creed or race, should always keep these facts in mind. Dictatorship means centralizing the power of government in the hands of one man or one group of men. Persecution and repression always follow.

The lessons of the past few years are before us. Let us not forget them.

DISASTROUS CLOWNING

The day's news has begun to include the usual seasonal reports of "practical" jokes where someone's asinine deeds so often bring tragedy at picnics and other recreational gatherings.

From Phoenixville, Pa., for example recently came word of a canoe- upsetting prank that caused the deaths of two persons.

It cannot be too frequently impressed upon summer pleasure seekers that water sports afford an extremely dangerous background for foolhardy tricks of any nature. The chap who pushes someone into a stream, who rocks a boat or who dives at the legs of an unsuspecting bather is a distinct menace to the safety of his fellows.

One hopes that this summer's toll of inexcusable waterway casualties has already become sufficiently extensive to curb the recklessness of the silly morons whose sense of humor is so depraved as to induce clowning of a potentially disastrous character.

THE NEW MYSTERY RAY

Forty-eight enemy war vessels were sunk or disabled off the coast of New Jersey the other day by the coast artillery, and the engagement failed to cause any commotion within the United States. But it did create a great deal of interest here, and no doubt abroad, in a new ray which was employed to detect the enemy. The battle, of course, was almost entirely imaginary, but there was nothing imaginary in the mystery ray, which, depending upon neither light nor sound, revealed the location of the attacking fleet at a great distance from shore.

Other nations will be quick to realize the value of the new device, and probably foreign experts already are devoting their concentrated efforts to learning the secret, now in possession of the United States army. And once they discover it, as they probably will in time, it will be adopted by every power. And there will be just as intensive effort upon the part of experts to discover some means of making the ray ineffective. That is the aftermath of every development connected with armed defense.

The ray, it is believed, will make the United States practically invulnerable to attack. It will pierce fog and darkness for a distance of about 50 miles.

Many autoists, while reading the account of the mystery ray, may have thought the device would be a handy attachment for a car. Maybe some day, when the mystery is dissolved, a modification of the device generating the ray may be standard auto equipment.

FOREVER LOST

I know men who become quarrelsome when they have a few drinks in them and start pushing their friends around.

I know a couple of others who begin to weep for their sins when they are drunk.

I've known a few who when they are in liquor, retire to a corner all by themselves and brood morosely of the silliness of the intoxicated.

And I know some who are amusing and delightful companions when they are slightly over the edge.

And once I knew a man who, when he was drunk, always passed bad checks on bartenders—and was in and out of prison all his life. . . . He blamed the drink for it, but his friends and victims observed that before he started on his spree he was always careful to equip himself with half a dozen books of blank checks.

That check-passer reminds me of a woman I heard of recently who drank half a dozen cocktails and then proceeded to destroy a lifelong friendship. . . . She dragged out long-forgotten grudges and paraded them before strangers and friends. She displayed bitterness, malice, jealousy, hatred. She displayed a meanness of spirit that nobody had suspected in the gnawing envy that actuated her life.

The next day she remembered at least half of what she had screamed in her cups—and came around to beg for forgiveness. The forgiveness was granted, because the heart can forgive although the memory cannot forget. . . . But that friendship was forever spoiled. No words of apology could restore it to life. It was finished.

And the one who suffered most was not the woman who drank and bared the poison in her spirit. The pain that lingered longest was in the hearts of her friends who had believed a friendship existed and discovered it was a hypocritical sham.

WHAT DO YOUR SERVANTS THINK OF YOU?

Some men are courteous only to those whom they consider their equals or their superiors.

To others they are positively rude, making no effort to be fair or kind.

To others they are positively rude, lady is always gracious and polite.

Persons accustomed to servants and the station in life which entitles them to service are never ardent in talking to their employees.

They give instructions—not demands or commands.

It takes a born underling to shout orders or give haughty commands.

In society there are those who appear to be the personification of gracious manners until they give orders to a servant.

It is surprising to watch the change in facial expression.

It is amusing to note the difference in tone of voice and general attitude when addressing a servant.

It cannot be expected that the same manners should be used toward a servant as toward a guest, but there should not be extreme difference as seen in some households.

It is a matter of difference in breeding in those who reserve their good manners for special persons and occasions and those who are gracious to all.

A WAYWARD GOLFER

I lack that keen and subtle touch Which to a golfer means so much; Nor have I that within me which Assures a deadly mashie pitch.

A near-by bird may start to sing And something happens to my swing.

I know what should be done and how.

What a cross wind to allow, I've learned to gauge and now and then

Can battle with the best of men; But mine is such a wayward soul I have no power of self-control.

At times with putts I ought to sink Of something else I seem to think. I wonder just what kind of bird Produced that silver note I heard. And golf's a game no man can play When once his mind begins to stray.

I'll never be a golfer great, Because I cannot concentrate. Though much I love the game, I find I have a most unruly mind, Which thinks of countless happier things

Than mashie shots and grassie swings. (Copyright, 1935, Edgar A. Guest.)

Although the applause didn't merit it, the actor was a little cocky about his acting, so at the end of

He raved a while about the production, the vast amount of work and worry it required to present it, and finally said something about the financial outlay.

"And," he said by way of conclusion, "I am deeply grateful to my audience and only wish that I might thank each one here personally."

"Very good," shouted a gallery god, "tomorrow night you'll be able to."

BOTTOM LANDS BEING SCoured

(International News Service)
FULTON, Mo., Aug. 7.—Posses today beat the bottom lands between McKane and Tebbets where two of the six insane criminals who escaped from the state hospital here Saturday night are believed hiding.

Two of the desperadoes, Oliver Hamilton, 35, a convicted killer, and Edward Marcum, 26, were captured late yesterday without the firing of a single shot. The pair were unarmed and surrendered without the slightest show of resistance when cornered by wary possesmen ordered to shoot to kill.

Another of the insane killers, Henry St. John, voluntarily surrendered a few hours after the escape, explaining his poor eyesight kept him from keeping up with his fleeing companions.

Now Free From Stomach Trouble Over Six Months

Says Indo-Vin Brought Lasting Relief From Stomach Affliction

The real test of any medicine is proof that it brings lasting relief, as in the case of Mrs. Goldie Caldwell, of 20 Buena Vista St., Washington, Pa., who says: "It is wonderful to be free of stomach trouble, in fact, I have been out of misery for over six months, since I took Indo-Vin that long ago, and my trouble has never returned. My meals simply would not digest at all but would stay there in my stomach organs and would sour and turn to gas and I'd keep belching up a sour, bitter substance and would get into an awful state of pain and misery. I tried a lot of medicine and expensive treatments but got NO RELIEF until I found Indo-Vin. My meals are digesting perfectly now and my food agrees with me and it never turns sour and forms gas in my stomach like it used to. I have been free from stomach trouble for over SIX MONTHS, and I am GLAD to endorse it, for it deserves ANYBODY'S praise." Eckerd's Drug Store, here in New Castle, is now selling large quantities of Indo-Vin. Also being sold in all the nearby towns by every good druggist throughout this whole section.

Government Asks Kutsche Firm To Fix Floor Trouble

The government has called the floor buckling in the workroom of the new post office to the attention of A. W. Kutsche & Co., the Detroit general contracting firm which erected the Federal building, Postmaster Richard A. Steen said today.

A short time ago Steen reported the faulty streak to the U. S. Treasury department and today he learned that the Kutsche firm has been asked to remedy it.

The buckling, while minor in ways, was something which post office officials felt should not occur in a new building in use only a little over seven months. The building was dedicated December 15, 1934.

New Beer Act Cuts Down Local Revenue

Fees For Distributors Increased Heavily And All Goes Into State Fund

Lawrence county will lose some revenue as a result of the transfer of the power to license beer distributors from County Treasurer William O. Pitts to the State Liquor Control board.

The new act became effective July 19. At that time County Treasurer Pitts had already granted distributors licenses, which cost the applicant $150.

The fee under the new act is $400. Those who have paid their $150 must make up the balance of $400 to the Liquor Control board. Treasurer Pitts does not know whether or not he will have to turn over the $150 he has collected, as no opinion has been delivered.

The House of Representatives was responsible for changing the law with reference to distributors, and as a result local communities throughout the state will lose a considerable amount of revenue.

There has been no change in the retail beer licenses, which will still be granted by the county treasurer. It is said that the money collected from distributors is to go into the Mothers Assistance fund, and for pensions for the blind.

Firemen Avoid Crashing Auto

Pedestrians reported yesterday that when fire trucks went to East Washington and Court streets that an auto pulled from Croton avenue in front of one of the trucks. The firemen were given praise for their action in avoiding a crash. All of the trucks came at a reasonable rate of speed through East Washington street and on account of the traffic had to pull to the left of several street cars as automobiles were between the street cars and parked automobiles on the south side of the thoroughfare.

In different places this morning persons were heard suggesting that either a siren be sounded when fire alarms are turned in or the traffic lights so arranged that when a fire breaks out the lights can be turned amber by a master control.

Old Post Office Building Likely To Be Utilized

With a view to using the old post office on Mercer and North streets as a headquarters for the Works Progress Administration, engineers are surveying the property and estimating what changes would be needed to make it available for such use. The postal department has also been contacted to ascertain what steps are necessary to acquire the property.

It will be impossible for the WPA to function using part of the present relief building. More room is needed for engineers, draftsmen, executive heads and clerical help. For this reason a number of sites have been inspected but it seems possible that the old postoffice will be the one selected.

Youth May Help Solve Slaying

Police Question 19-Year-Old
Boy In Westwood Murder Case

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 7.—Details of the slaying of Mrs. Martha Westwood were still clouded with mystery today—five weeks after the baffling murder took place in the suburban McKees Rocks apartment of the Westwood family.

Although authorities held a 19-year-old youth, the latest figure in the case, for questioning, it was not disclosed whether he had been able to produce any helpful clues.

Identity of the youth, picked up in McKees Rocks last night, was not revealed. He was closeted behind locked doors with detectives for five hours.

Meanwhile, tests with a "lie detector" having apparently failed to reveal anything of significance, state police who conducted the tests left the city. Every principal in the tragedy except James Westwood, McKees Rocks peace justice and husband of the slain woman, was questioned.

Army Units Are Marching Toward Guard Encampment

National Guards Will Be Joined
At Summer Encampment
By Regular Army

(International News Service)
INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa., Aug. 7.—Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching—

Advance guards of the largest peacetime concentration of troops in Pennsylvania, regular U. S. Army units today were beginning to arrive at the National Guard encampment here for the two-week drilling period beginning August 17.

National Guardsmen will not reach the camp until the week end before the training period starts but the army units which will train with the guard this year are coming into camp ahead of the civilian soldiers. The 12th Infantry from Fort Howard, Md., and the 13th Engineers both are already in camp and other army units are moving overland by truck toward the Gap. The Field Artillery from Fort Hoyle is marching overland now, expecting to arrive here next Monday.

Both the 28th (Pennsylvania) and the 29th Divisions of the National Guard will be in camp with the army units for the training period which will be part of a mass defense maneuver of the eastern seaboard. No general review and mass parade is expected to be held because of the huge number of men in camp but Gov. George H. Earle and the executives of Maryland and Virginia, home of the 29th Guard Division, will spend one day at the camp to watch the maneuvers.

Lightning Strips Constable 'Clean'

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Constable Frank Myers, 35, had recovered today from being struck by a bolt of lightning, but not from his embarrassment.

Myers and Laverne Sandburg, 28, a Minneapolis truck driver, were chatting at a highway intersection near McHenry, Ill., last night when an electrical storm broke. They sought shelter under a tree.

A bolt of lightning struck the tree, knocked both men unconscious, and stripped the clothing from Myers.

UNHURT IN CRASH
GROVE CITY, Aug. 7.—Carl McDougall of this city escaped unhurt yesterday when his automobile slid into a Pennsylvania railroad train that blocked the crossing at Mercer. His car was badly damaged.

HANEY'S

Display Pictures Of Local Old Timers

With Old Timers Day just around the corner, a display of pictures hanging in the windows of The News today is of more than ordinary interest. It is a collection of 266 pictures of "Original Old Timers" of New Castle and in the collection are photographs of men who made a city out of a village.

The collection is the property of Mrs. Helen Ward Stevens, wife of Col. Basil Martiatu Stevens of Montclair, N. J. Mrs. Stevens is the daughter of the late Mrs. Edward H. Ward who was Miss Mary Clendenin. The pictures were gathered together by Wells B. Clendenin, the organizer of the Old Timers Association and were used in the program of the Old Timers Day on August 10, 1911.

Following the death of Mrs. Ward about five years ago the home at the corner of Mercer and Grant streets has been closed. Mrs. Stevens is here at the present time endeavoring to settle up the estate and dispose of the home either by sale or rent. In the old home are some of the most exquisite antiques one can imagine, some of them going back to the royal court of France in the days of Louis XV.

In gathering the photographs together Mr. Clendenin must have gone to extraordinary pains. Each photograph is mounted, with ten on each card (save one), thirty panels in all. In the group of sturdy old pioneers can be seen pictures of such men as Robert W. Clendenin, grand father of Mrs. Stevens, William McCleary, the three Doctors Wallace, Dick, John and Jim; David Winternitz, Shubal Wilder, Hon. L. McGuffin, Josiah Crowther, Captain James Leslie, E. I. Agnew, Dr. Joseph Pollock and many other names that mean something in the history of New Castle.

The collection has been hung in The News window since yesterday but has attracted hundreds already. They will remain for several days and the public is invited to view them.

Republicans Axed In Highway Force

Due to a "reorganization" of the state highway department of Lawrence County, Republican employees are being dropped in considerable numbers this week. Maintainers, truck drivers and foremen have received letters from John B. Shaw, superintendent stating that due to the reorganization their services are no longer required.

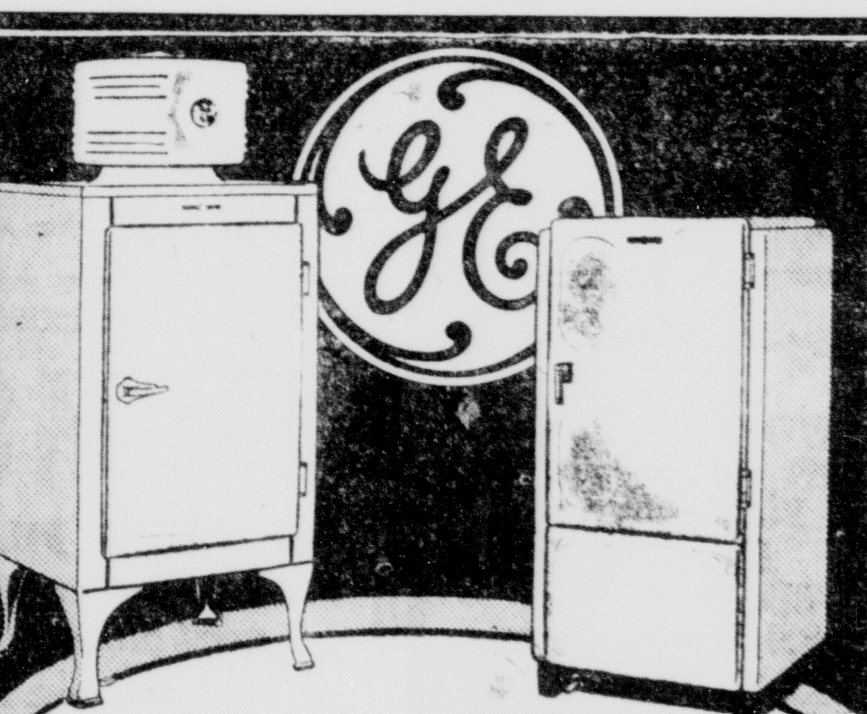

Many of them are veteran employees who have been associated with the highway department for years and have had a large part in building the splendid system of highways in this county.

Publicity Chief For Democrats

Offensive Is Being Developed By Charles
Michelson, Noted
As Fighter

WAS AL SMITH'S
PUBLICITY MAN

Central Press
Washington Bureau
1900 S. Street
By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Director Charles Michelson of the Democratic national committee's publicity bureau unquestionably knows exactly what he desires his policy to be during the coming presidential campaign.

By nature Michelson is an offensive fighter.

His plan, if he can realize it, is to wage into the Republican candidate and party, keeping them too busy on the defensive to launch any attacks on the New Dealers.

But, if the Republicans have any political sense, one is at liberty to doubt that he will be able to stick strictly to this program.

INHERITED ORGANIZATION

Political conditions, from about a year after the Hoover-Smith campaign, until recently, were made to order for the Michelsonian temperament.

The Farley Democratic organization of today owes about 75 per cent to the Raskob Democratic organization which preceded it. Beaten flat in 1928, the plucky Raskob management was not discouraged. It was determined to rebuild Al Smith's 1932 chances. To be sure Franklin D. Roosevelt, instead of Al, profited by its reconstruction work. Nevertheless, Chairman Farley inherited a high-powered machine from Chairman Raskob.

It must be recognized that Jonetti Shouse, in active charge of Democratic headquarters in Washington was supremely efficient.

However, the real craftsman was Michelson.

Charley (a Manhattan newspaperman; Washington correspondent of the old New York World was Smith's choice as the committee's publicity director. And a corking good choice.

HAD ALL THE "BREAKS"

It was Michelson's notion that bitter criticism of the Republican regime was the best method to pave the way for a Democratic regime to succeed it.

It was characteristic strategy for an offensive warrior.

As previously remarked, the situation was ideal for that system of fighting.

Charley had little to defend.

His side was in its third term out of office; if there were flaws in its record, they were so old that he could afford to ignore them.

The Republicans, on the opposite hand, were very vulnerable. The boom exploded Depression followed. President Hoover proved to be personally unpopular, especially among the press correspondents. He also proved to have guessed wrong on the prohibition issue. There was an oil scandal in the background.

Oh, Charley had all the "breaks"—but it must be admitted that he made the most of them.

BUT WHAT OF FUTURE?

Republican yells of indignation (during the Hoover administration) at his "smear the president" system were testimonial to the efficacy of his method.

Another testimonial to it is to be found in the fact that when the Rooseveltians came in, although Michelson had been a Smith man, they kept him; he was too valuable to be sacrificed ($25,000 a year is supposed to be his salary).

But, in the next campaign, Charley may have a plexus of policies to defend?

Can he do it?—as capably as he can act on the offensive?

The question remains to be answered.

Of course, if the Republicans put up an indifferent candidate in 1936 (Hoover or some eastern reactionary), Michelson simply will play horse with him.

However, suppose the G. O. P. hits on a fairly strong nominee?—as yet unheralded? Or that there is a coalition or a third party ticket?—vigorously attacking the New Deal? And suppose there has not been a material economic improvement?

Then the New Deal may HAVE to fight defensively—which isn't so easy.

HIS HEART IN IT

I have my doubts that Charley's heart is in the New Deal fight, anyway, as it was in the Al Smith fight, from about 1929 to Al's defeat by Franklin D. Roosevelt in Chicago.

He was a wonderful publicity agent for Al until the 1932 convention, he hasn't accomplished anything so extraordinary since then. His party won, but not his candidate.

A SMART MAN

Michelson, who is perhaps 65, is an unostentatious publicity agent. Under his rules the Democratic national committee broadcasts few "statements" of its own. If it has one that it wishes to publicize, it notifies the National Press Club that it has a "statement" by Senator So-and-So, to be issued by the national committee. When this occurs, one knows that Michelson has chosen a "statement" that he chooses to "wish" upon some public man, who will accept the responsibility for it.

State Forests Offer Fine Vacation Appeal

(Special To The News)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 7.—As a means of "seeing Pennsylvania First," Thomas C. Buchanan, secretary of Forests and Waters, today recommended the highly developed recreational centers located in State Forests throughout Pennsylvania as the ideal place to spend a satisfying, economical, beneficial vacation this summer.

Pointing to the historical sites, the scenic beauties, the sportsmen's paradises, and other points of general interest located within the Commonwealth's own boundry lines, Secretary Buchanan said: "A vacation spent in the Pennsylvania State Forests, where areas for recreation have been highly developed during the last few years, affords a period of relaxation and contentment that everyone needs these days; it will acquaint the vacationist with the unparalleled beauties that are Pennsylvania's, and will disclose the great natural resources of the State in which we live."

"Pennsylvania offers the ideal vacation, and I herewith invite all the people to visit the State Forests this summer, and use the camping facilities that are available at the many State Forest Parks and public camping grounds throughout the State."

Many fine recreational centers are to be found in the Complanter and Kittanning State Forest Districts in the northwestern section of Pennsylvania.

The Cook State Forest Park containing the largest remaining stand of virgin white pine and hemlock in the State is located here, and its scenic beauty is famous throughout the East.

Next in importance is the Erie State Park, also the Drake-Well Memorial Park, and the Clear Creek public camping ground all located within this outstanding recreational area.

Park pavilions, camp stoves, table shelters, tables, benches, and camping grounds are available at these places and afford an ideal spot to relax and rest.

These places are maintained by the Department of Forests and Waters, and are for the use of all the people.

matron, is still on desk duty at the sergeant's office in the city building. She has been performing her duties satisfactorily. She is one of the few women qualified for such a post in Third class cities.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police records at the city building show that New Castle has been extremely quiet during the past few days. In fact no arrests were made during a period of 48 hours that ended at 3:30 p. m. August 6.

Traffic signs which were removed from poles and posts when the RWD project closed down have been allowed to remain alongside the posts. Some of them are rusty. They are a menace to pedestrians.

Since the city jobs were closed by the RWD, Purchasing Agent Joseph Alexander and his stenographer, Miss Susan Wallace, have enjoyed a respite from arduous duties.

Every few days Dr. W. L. Steen, health officer for the city, tests water taken from wells or springs in the city. Springs and wells, if found contaminated are closed promptly as a typhoid fever preventative.

Threat of a sentence to the Workhouse apparently has acted as a deterrent to vandalism here. During the past few weeks reports of city property being destroyed have been conspicuous by their absence.

Citizens are paying their taxes at a fair rate of speed, according to city treasury attaches. There is a two percent penalty on city tax but school tax can be paid at face until October 1 when a penalty is imposed.

Chief of police J. F. Haven's edict that all automobiles must pull to the right and stop when a siren of a fire truck or police car is heard will meet with approval of most motorists. A minute's delay sometime can cost a life.

Up near the top of the list of reunions which are always marked by an extra big attendance, is the annual gathering of the Sixteeners association which will take place in Mercer, Pa., for three days, August 13, 14 and 15.

Around 400 people are interested in this yearly occasion, and full programs are being planned for each day. Addresses, music and speeches by prominent men and women will feature, with in-between visits to the old school grounds of additional interest.

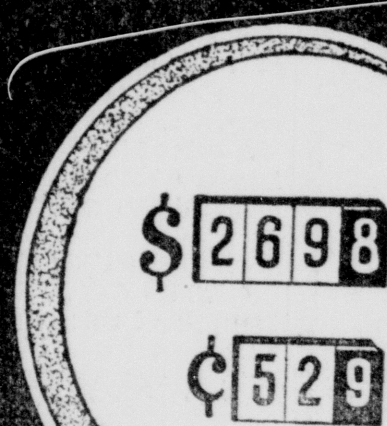

Too much fault finding with Washington weather. The danger is a possible campaign to move the capital, leaving the constitution where it is.

WOULD DISPOSE OF POST OFFICE BUILDINGS

Old Structures Figure In Bill

Measure Provides Sale Of Unused Buildings For Half Of Land Value

WOULD AFFECT LOCAL SITUATION

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—A bill which has been favorably reported by the House of Representatives post office committee and is now on the legislative calendar would make it possible for New Castle to buy the city's old post office at a cost equivalent to only one-half the appraised valuation of the land on which the building stands.

The measure would authorize the treasury department to sell to cities, counties or states all abandoned federal buildings for sums equal to 50 per cent of the valuation of the sites. The value of the buildings themselves would be disregarded. Hence, New Castle could buy the old post office by paying to Uncle Sam one-half the valuation of the lot on which the structure is built.

Need Method For Sale.

Explaining the measure to the house, Chairman Mead of the post office committee declared treasury and post office department officials are in accord that some uniform method for disposing of old federal buildings should be adopted. He asserted that scores of old buildings, just as in the case of New Castle, are standing unused and gloomy because there are no buyers at current real estate prices. He said treasury and post office officials thought the bill should be passed so that the government could rid itself of the obsolete buildings and turn them over for civic use to local governments at reasonable costs.

Demand For Structures.

Mr. Mead pointed out there have been wide demands that abandoned federal buildings be turned over to local governments for use as schools, libraries, and the like. He said many bills had been introduced by senators and representatives which would require donation of certain specific buildings to municipalities free of charge. He said his committee was convinced the government would save money if congress established a policy whereby the treasury could sell old buildings to local governments for one-half the value of the sites.

Passage of the bill would permit New Castle to come into possession of the old post office for civic use at the very nominal cost of one-half the value of the tract of land on which it stands. The other 50 per cent of the land value plus the building itself would be thrown into the deal by the government at no cost to the city.

Good Wool Crop In Pennsylvania

Slight Increase Is Shown In State Against Decrease Elsewhere

FLEECES SAID TO BE HEAVIER

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—Wool production by farmers in 1935 as compared with 1934 is expected to decline in the nation generally but increase slightly in Pennsylvania, according to a survey by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The department estimates wool shorn and to be shorn in the country as a whole this year at 343,889,000 pounds. This represents a decline of four per cent below the 1934 production of 357,658,000 pounds. In the Keystone state, on the other hand, wool production is expected to increase from 3,589,000 pounds in 1934 to 3,592,000 this year.

The Pennsylvania increase is accounted for by heavier fleeces. Fleeces in the state are estimated at a weight of 7.5 pounds per fleece in 1935 as against 7.4 pounds last year. Sheep shorn or to be shorn in the state are reported as declining from 485,000 head in 1934 to 479,000 head this year.

Retailers Are Aided By FHA

Broaden Rules To Enable Retailers To Make Out On Modernization Plan

Appeal of FHA's home modernization campaign for department stores and other retail outlets was greatly enhanced this week by a new ruling to the effect that installation of several heavy-selling types of household equipment doesn't have to be permanent, it was stated by Marcus Feuchtwanger, administrator for Lawrence county. The gist of FHA's new policy in its modernization credit drive is—sell and plug in. This covers all types of refrigerators, gas and electric ranges, coal ranges, electric washing machines, ironers, unit air conditioning.

Much of this equipment, particularly refrigerators, has been selling in large volume on FHA's credit terms, with proper attention to the detail of permanent attachment. The list cannot be stretched to cover small gadgets such as mixers, fans, toasters, irons and egg beaters, but an amazing variety of other household equipment is being sold on FHA's time payment insured credit plan under which the local bank advances the money and makes the collections.

The eligible list includes awnings, screens (including the porch), showers, toilet seats, medicine cabinets, kitchen cabinets, oil stoves and oil burners, electric sewing machines, rubber and linoleum flooring, radiators, enclosures. Reports received by FHA indicate that in Philadelphia and Boston particularly, department stores are using its modernization credit plan very effectively.

Administrative Director Feuchtwanger of Lawrence county stated that quite a number of loans on this plan are being made, retail houses are taking advantage and thereby increasing their sales.

Bitterness In Berlin.

Frank H. Hitchcock Dead.

A Chain Of Weak Links.

The Snake Has Rights.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

BERLIN REPORTS increased bitterness in the war against the Catholic Church with official posters, eight feet high, printed in red, scattered through the city, attacking alleged Catholic opposition to Nazi rule.

The posters speak of the "grafting center (Catholic) party, working hand in hand with Bolshevism," and declare that Catholics, "the eternal enemies of the Reich, wish to destroy the unity of Germany." The posters are believed to indicate new and more bitter attacks on Catholic organizations.

MANY AMERICANS will learn with sincere regret of the death of Frank H. Hitchcock, postmaster general in President Taft's cabinet and at the time of his death, publisher of the Tucson Daily Citizen. Frank Hitchcock (typical, intelligent American, will be remembered as first to appreciate the airplane's importance in connection with distribution of mail. Twenty-four years ago when flying was new, he flew, taking a pouch of mail with him and advocated immediate use of planes over "impassable stretches of country."

A graduate of Harvard in 1891, Frank Hitchcock was only 65 years old. Pneumonia ended his life, prematurely.

ONE OUT of every three married couples in the United States is childless, news not complimentary to the childless families. Exceptions are cases in which nature refuses to send children.

You would not value a chain of steel with even a third link broken, or a chain of heredity with every third link missing. This "childless family" news should make this country revise stupid laws against immigration, shutting out men and women willing to have children, and work for them.

AT THOMASVILLE, North Carolina, the Rev. Campbell Holmes, "Holy Roller" preacher, allowed a rattlesnake to bite him, as he preached "just to show you that God will take care of me." There was excitement and admiration in the congregation. Next day his arm was badly swollen, he was violently ill, death threatened, but the "Holy Roller" preacher refused medical attention. The reverend gentleman perhaps forgot that the same great power, that gave him his beautiful faith, also gave the rattlesnake its powerful poison. Each creature has its gifts, not safely ignored.

WHEN YOU SEE pictures of Uncle Sam's greatest fighting airship proudly called "The Flying Fortress," the "world's most dangerous fighting machine," you might remember that this country owes this machine to private enterprise and energy.

Charles E. Mitchell, formerly president of New York's National City Bank, when he established and financed United Aircraft, including the Boeing organization, he made possible the production of such machines as this.

He lost his fortune in the big smash, and must rebuild it but the work he did in financing American aviation on a really gigantic scale remains, and he deserves thanks for it.

MADAME EVELYN, who reads the stars, the future, the crystal globe and the lines in your hand, on the New Jersey beach, read the "lines" for a 200-pound customer, then sighed and said "I see only trouble ahead for you."

The client also sighed and he, says Madame Evelyn, stood up, and said, "You are an excellent fortune teller, and here's the beginning of the trouble, and socked me on the jaw, knocking me out of my chair."

THE POLICE, unable to find the client, and Madame Evelyn could not locate him with the aid of the stars, or the crystal globe, because "my controls were knocked out of order."

That incident is related only because it seems to be new and therefore news.

SENATOR ARTHUR CAPPER, of Kansas, "really and truly" believes that Republicans are coming back, and will even supply six names of a "winner." He says the issues will be "economy and Constitution" in 1936.

Mr. Capper talks with restraint, like a Senator. Not so some other Republicans known as "grass roots" leaders, gathered in Chicago, who defy President Roosevelt to "face now the farmers that he addressed before the election in 1932."

THOSE WHO doubt the President's political courage or his willingness to address anybody anywhere, are not familiar with his mental processes.

The farmers that he "dared" to address are those that he will want to see first.

It is expected that by tonight a complete check of tickets sold for the McCullough family benefit at Centennial field will have been made today. Few Single Men In Pennsylvania

Number Of Eligible Bachelors In State Far Below National Average

HAVE OVER TWO MILLION FAMILIES

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent,
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—New Castle lassies looking for a husband might do well to extend their search into other parts of the country, if statistics mean anything in the marriage game.

According to a special study just completed by the census bureau single men of marriageable status in Pennsylvania number 61,416 and single women total 47,160. In other words, there is only about one and one-fifth single men for each woman who might be wanting a husband. In the country as a whole, on the other hand, single men outnumber single women almost two to one.

Hence, the logic of figures would seem to indicate from a numerical viewpoint the chances of a spinster finding an eligible bachelor might be considerably greater in the nation generally than in Pennsylvania.

The study presents some interesting data on Pennsylvania families. The Keystone state is credited with having 2,232,335 families. Of these, 1,782,755 have man and wife living together, 103,119 are headed by a man widowed, divorced or separated, and 237,885 are headed by a woman widowed, divorced or separated.

Of the 1,782,755 families headed by man and wife living together, 531,152 have on children, 390,365 have one child, 322,625 have two children and 538,613 have three or more children.

October Flight Of 6,500 Miles Across Pacific Ocean Is Planned

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—The next "sailing" of the Pan American Clipper, now at its California base, it was announced at the Pan American Airways office today, will be an October flight 6,500 miles out across the Pacific to Guam.

Scheduled flights to Manila, the contemplated terminal of the line's far-flung effort, will await the passage of a franchise by the Philippine legislature which meets September 29.

The Clipper's next flight will be an "experimental transport flight" as the line terms it and will be a straight point-to-point flight under the conditions of scheduled transport service for the training of the crew. Previous flights which have gone as far as Midway Island have been engineering flights for the gathering of weather and radio data involving off-course flying.

As for flying passengers across the Pacific that must wait for the extension of the flights to Manila, but it was emphasized at the line's office that there is no seasonal element to the Pacific venture and that the work started this spring will continue and be constantly extended right through the coming winter.

The S. S. North Haven which took out the materials and the men who will live the life of castaways (plus most of the comforts of civilization) at their lonely island posts in mid-Pacific is now in port at Seattle.

GIRL RECOVERING FROM EXPERIENCE IN RESCUE EFFORT

GROVE CITY, Aug. 7.—Miss Clara Dean is recovering at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Dean, from severe shock and nervous exhaustion brought on by her futile effort to save her friend, Leta Shimer, 28, of Beaver Falls, from drowning in Slippery Rock creek Monday evening. Miss Dean, who made a heroic effort to rescue her companion, was twice dragged under the swift current by the drowning girl, and abandoned her efforts only when she lost the body in the muddy water. She collapsed when she had reached the banks.

The girls, both Beaver county teachers, had been operating a tea room on the Butler-Slippery Rock road this summer. Miss Dean was an expert swimmer, but she almost lost her life in the rescue effort.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Although Joe Louis is a two to one favorite to clip the whiskers of Kingfish Levinsky in Chicago tonight, and a guess of $200,000 is expected, Jimmy Dunn, former manager of Johnny Kilbane, a champion of featherweights for a long time, intimated while here a few nights ago that Joe may run into trouble.

He recalled the career of Kilbane. "Every time I put Kilbane in the ring with someone whom we regarded lightly he had a tough fight," said Dunn. "The reason for this is that when a smart boxer opposes a wild swinger, you can't figure out his next move. He's liable to hit you on the hip or on the chin. Pitted against another smart fighter one generally knows his style." By these remarks Dunn did not imply that Louis wouldn't win but indicated that he was apt to have some trouble before he does get going. Levinsky is a powerful puncher but lacks the poise of Louis. The fight tonight recalls that when Joe Alexander managed Emmett Rocco, whom we hear will return to Ellwood City, Rocco beat Levinsky in Pittsburgh but in a second fight in Chicago the Kingfish won.

Cleto Locatelli, Italy, swept into line for a shot at the higher-ups in the lightweight ranks when he won from Harry Dubinsky of Chicago in a hot 10-round bout at Coney Island last night.

Joe McDonald turned in a card of 88 and won the golf championship of the Sleepy Hollow Golf club, Franklin, yesterday. He played in a five-hole with Kenneth Marwood. Willis Whipple, W. W. Waitz and Fred Mitchell.

MAITLAND STARS WIN
The Maitland Stars soft ball team defeated the Electric Street Stars in a well played game at the B. & O. field, 3 to 2, with Coppel and Apostolic allowing the losers but six hits. Maitland had eight hits off of Elisco. The batting stars for the Maitlands were Morella and Filigenzi.

Louis-Levinsky Ready To Battle In Chicago Ring

Joe Louis Is Favorite To Defeat Chicago's Eccentric Kingfish

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—In the readily inflammable atmosphere of the South Side, where racial distrust is a patent symptom, King Levinsky, the white man, and Joe Louis, the negro, are to meet tonight in a ten round prize fight that is not wholly without its quota of nameless misgivings. It has potentialities that under given circumstances could be unique and unlovely.

Nevertheless, all was tranquil this morning and no disorders were expected, although of the estimated crowd of 40,000, at least a thousand were to be detailed policemen in uniform and out. This may turn out to be one of those advertised shambles in which the principals embrace with marked tenderness. It may be too refined for words. But the police are playing it right up against the waistcoat.

It has been rightly hailed as Chicago's first important heavyweight fight since Tunney and Dempsey, with receipts probably running as high as $200,000 if the weather is right. "The forecast was 'generally fair' and much the same might be said about the chances for a knockout by either man.

Strange Pair
Strangely assorted pair, this Levinsky with the body of a caribou and the guileless mind of a child, Louis with the chill indifference of the born "shooter." But both can hit with great violence.

Louis, winner by a knockout in nineteen of his twenty three fights since turning professional, a brief but dramatic year, was a natural and deserving favorite at odds of 13 to 5 and higher this morning. One man was supposed to be here trying to get down any part of $10,000 at even money that the negro will score a knockout before the tenth, but nobody was listening. If he will, the world's heavyweight championship should be his inside of a year.

Levinsky Has Chance
One way of missing it would be to have tonight's affair greeted by disorders. Another would be to lose to Levinsky, which is not beyond the bounds of all reason. I think the eccentric King, intelligently trained for the first time in years, has a fair chance of going ten rounds. But, for winning, I think he has practically none.

However, he figures to be a better fighter tonight than Primo Carnera was in New York two months ago when Louis cut the giant down with the cold finality of an assassin. But Carnera was pretty much of a physical caricature that night. Besides, he can't punch and Levinsky can.

Giants Lose As Cubs Win

Chicago Cubs Gain Game On Giants In Race For National League Flag

By TONY PUGLIESE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Old Tom Zachary, the Brooklyn Dodgers' perennial youngster, is a colorful chap—and exceedingly effective on the mound in the right spot.

The 38-year-old veteran pitched the Dodgers to a 3 to 1 win over the league-leading New York Giants yesterday and snapped the Terrymen's streak at five straight. Tom pitched a typical game, giving up 11 hits, and by bearing down in the clutches left 12 Giants on the sacks. Tony Cuccinello's second inning homer gave Tom all the backing he needed to cruise in to a victory. Roy Parmelee and Allyn Stout pitched for the Giants and yielded eight hits.

Another veteran, the 37-year-old Bob Smith of the Boston Braves, came close to entering baseball's Hall of Fame in the most difficult pitcher's park in the league. Smith set down the first 22 Phillies to face him and gave the Braves a 4 to 0 decision. Singles by Dolis Camilli and Al Todd in the eighth, after one was out, robbed him of his no-hitter.

Cubs Top Pirates
The Cubs gained a full game and came within three games of the Giants by defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2 to 1. Although Ralph Birkhofer limited the Cubs to four hits, he threw the game away when, in trying for a double play in the third, he purposely trapped a short fly and then threw wildly to first base, which was left uncovered. Both runs were tallied on the play, as Gus Suhr contributed another wild heave after retrieving Birkhofer's wild toss. Bud Hefner's home run was the only Pirate run.

Cardinals Win
The St. Louis Cardinals tangled with the troublesome Cincinnati Reds, and after the teams had battled through 10 innings of torrid baseball, Dizzy Dean won his own ball game with a home run with two games aboard. The score was 6 to 3.

In the only American League game played, the Washington Senators pounded Bill Dietrich for 14 hits and defeated the Philadelphia Athletics, 11 to 2.

The Davis team will go to Gaston Park to engage the St. Andrews team with Kawa and Wilson assigned to the game.

Barbers Improve Their Language

Many New Terms Are Being Learned In Barber School Recently Opened

If you happen to walk into your barber shop and find the proprietor or journeyman using such terms as stratum corneum, lucidum, granulosum, mucosum or germinationum layer, don't feel as if you are in the wrong place, for it may be the barber is only reviewing his next lesson in barber science.

A class composed of union shop proprietors and journeymen barbers was inaugurated Tuesday evening in the shop of Herb Samuels, where it will meet every Tuesday evening until the course is completed. It will last six months, and will be under the auspices of the Barbers International Union.

B. E. Daubenspeck acted as chairman and Jack White, vice chairman, and the following committee was named to furnish entertainment at the meeting next Tuesday: Herb Samuels, Jack White and Frank Fazzone.

Discussion took place on pending barber legislation after which the meeting adjourned.

Last Minute Rush For Beer Licenses

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 7.—The last-minute rush of applications for the new beer distributors licenses from the liquor control board got underway today while a temporary injunction prevented enforcement of the act in Philadelphia pending outcome of a constitutionality suit.

Clyde E. Smith, chief of licensing for the new $400-a-year beer distributors licenses already had been received by the board, and that he expected another 1,200 applications before Saturday, the deadline.

No distributors licenses have been issued under the act, Smith said, but he added that the first permits will be dispatched this week to establishments about which there "can be no question of eligibility." Other licenses will be rushed as fast as the investigating machinery of the board can function.

The new act requires the board to decide whether individual distributors may conduct other business besides that of selling "suds" by the case lot or more, a provision which slows up the machinery of issuing permits, Smith pointed out, with the result that establishments which have no other business probably will obtain their licenses quicker than other concerns. The board has not ruled on what types of business can be carried on in conjunction with beer wholesaling.

Old Timers Day At Frisco Saturday

Pastime A. C. To Sponsor Fine Event Here All Day Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 7.—Old Timers are to face one another Saturday when the Pastime A. C. of Frisco will sponsor an Old Timers Day. Benches have been arranged in such a manner that they can sit in such a manner that they can sit and talk while facing one another, as they reminisce through the years when Ellwood City was a place without paved streets or lights. Autos were not even thought of in those days, and an airplane would have driven the inhabitants to shelter.

The benches are built of lumber taken from the Old Walker Grist Mill, the land mark that stood below the Frisco Dam. The dam was washed away years ago, and now the mill has been torn down after standing for so many years that no one to date has the exact knowledge of the time of its construction.

All the Old Timers will be invited to speak over the public address amplifying system. Any that are able will be requested to throw some light on the construction of the old mill.

Plans are going along nicely and a real Old Timers get together is assured. In case of rain the club house will accommodate a thousand people. Admission, parking, and all the events of the club will be free.

The president of the club, J. A. Milnes got some interesting facts on Ellwood City in a talk with one of its prominent old time residents, Mr. Hancher. In 1896 Ellwood City had no paved streets and the sidewalks were of board or stone. It was necessary to carry a lantern after dark, due to the fact that there were no lights. The horse and buggy were the chief modes of transportation. The B. & O. and P. & L. E. railroads passed through the city, and of course not to forget the old hacks bound for Rock Point, one of the most famous summer resorts of the country at the time.

Amusements were dancing at the Hotel Oliver, located where the Lincoln high school now stands, horse racing both summer and winter on the race track which now is Pittsburgh Circle. The Old Timers will all remember the old Opera house that bloomed in full glory in those days. Bar room meetings and brawls were frequent. Likened to the gold rush of '49 and according to some of the stories that are told Ellwood City certainly had some colorful men.
